. Heard the learned Advocate for the applicant.

2. There are 4 dying declarations that implicate the accused. Two of these dying declarations are written dying declarations and one of these is recorded by Special Executive Magistrate (PW 4).

3. Prima facie, it appears to us that there is sufficient evidence against the accused/applicant for having committed murder of his wife.

4. No case for grant of bail is made out.

5. Criminal application for bail is accordingly rejected.
